Maria Koleda, President

St. Adalbert's
Polish Language School
 Thompson Street and Allegheny Ave.
 Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

St. Adalbert Polish Language School is looking forward to another fruitful school year. We will welcome returning and new students back to school on Saturday, September 9, 2006 at 9:00 A.M. Please have children ready for class for we will start up immediately.

Learning a second, third or even a fourth language is very popular. Our public and private schools are offering many language choices and requirements for a foreign language has increased in certain high schools from three to six years. As a result we are experiencing an increase in Saturday school population.

This year we will be offering a class for high school aged teenagers. It will cover many topics at a closer range. We would also like to begin a group for the children who do not speak any or much Polish. They are in need of a different approach and we want to extend a very warm welcome to those who wish to learn conversational Polish.

The changes - they are coming. We are open to changes and improvements and embrace all of our Polish youth from kindergarten through high school. WITAMY!

We are also interviewing teachers for these positions. All interested parties please call Maria Koleda at 610-368-1604 for further information.
