

Highlights From Last Year's Polish Festival

Plan to Attend This Great Event This Year!

Children enjoy the sun and rides at the Polish American Festival in Doylestown, PA.

Children enjoy the free rides at the Polish American Festival

The Polish American String Band strut the grounds and entertain the crowds at the Polish American Festival.

The Polish White Eagle Dance Ensemble perform traditional folk dances at the Polish American Festival.

Polish soldier re-enactors parade the grounds at the annual Polish American Festival.

"41st Annual"

Polish American Festival

September 2,3,4 (Labor Day), 9,10, 2006

Sat. Sept. 2nd

Charm City Sound
Wislanie 90
Henry & the Versa J's

Sun. Sept. 3rd

Polish American String Band
Wislanie 90
Dyna Brass

Mon. Sept. 4th

Labor Day
Tommy Thomas & Trio
Wislanie 90
Lenny Gomulka & Chicago Push

The National Shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa
654 Ferry Road - Doylestown, PA
www.PolisShrine.com

7.00 Per Person Admission Includes:
Free Parking
Midway Rides
Stage Shows
Polish Art Exhibition
Special Events
For info - call:
215-345-0600

Sat. Sept. 9th

Jersey Polka Richie
Dennis Polisky & the Maestro's Men

Sun. Sept 10th

Eddie Derwin & the Polka Naturals
Ray Jay & Carousels

Festival Hours • 12 Noon to 8 P.M.

A Winged Hussar dressed in traditional Polish warrior armor, rides his horse around the grounds at the annual Polish American Festival.

You can see how kielbasa is smoked in a traditional smokehouse in the Polish Village at the annual Polish American Festival.

Lou Rakszawski, PAC District Vice President representing Bucks County, leads the parade through the grounds at the annual Polish American Festival.

The Highlanders (Gorale) Dance Group take time to pose for a photo at the annual Polish American Festival.