Marking the 25th Anniversary of the Polish American Cultural Center Museum in Historic Philadelphia (1988-2013)

Polish American Cultural Center & Museum in Philadelphia

Dear Members, Friends & Supporters,
The Polish American Cultural Center Museum Exhibit Hall at 308 Walnut Street in historic Philadelphia marks its 25th Anniversary on August 9, 2013. Celebrations will take place during October, "Polish American Heritage Month", until the end of December.

Since its opening in 1988, the Museum Exhibit Hall has served as a focal point for the Polish American community and has welcomed tourists from around the world. For the past 25 years, Museum visitors have learned about Polish history, great men and women of Polish heritage and the treasured Polish customs which have united people of Polish descent for over 1,000 years. The Museum also promotes an appreciation for cultural and ethnic diversity among visitors to Philadelphia and America's Most Historic Square Mile.

As you can understand, maintaining this important effort requires a great deal of time and financial resources. Therefore, we depend on donations and fundraisers to maintain the Museum's general operations, address repairs and keep the Exhibit Hall open 300 days per year.

In order to maintain our services and promote Polish and Polish American history, culture and pride to as broad an audience as possible, we ask that you support our 25th Anniversary Campaign. In appreciation of your generosity, we will list the names of the 25th Anniversary Campaign Supporters in upcoming editions of the Polish American News as designated on the 25th Anniversary reply form. Kindly return your donation with the reply form below.

For additional information about the Museum Exhibit Hall's 25th Anniversary Campaign, call Monday through Friday between 9 A.M. and 5 P.M. at (215) 922-1700. Additional information is posted on Museum's Internet at: PolishAmericanCenter.com.
