

Polish American Congress Looks Back at Pulaski Day Parade

Thanks to the Pulaski Day Parade Participants

The Polish American Congress, Eastern Pennsylvania District, compliments the representatives of the parade divisions for their time and efforts in preparing this year's Pulaski Day Parade. Although this event requires a tremendous investment of time and money to be successful, it provides a beautiful display of Polish Heritage to the community at large.

Thanks to the parade divisions which included:

- U.S. Veterans
- Polish Army Veterans
- Polish American Congress, Eastern Pennsylvania District
- Jagiellonian Law Society
- Polish American Cultural Center Museum in Philadelphia
- Historic St. Stanislaus Church, South Philadelphia
- Second Street Polish Society
- Polish Police Association of Philadelphia
- National Shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa, Doylestown, PA
- Polish Eagles Sports Club
- Associated Polish Home, Northeast Philadelphia
- St. Valentine Parish, Frankford Section
- St. John Cantius Parish, Bridesburg/Frankford Section
- Polish Beneficial Association
- Janosik Polish Folk Dancers
- St. Josaphat Parish, Manayunk
- Polish Intercollegiate Club, P.K.M. Polish Folk Dancers
- Polish National Alliance and Polish American Heritage
- Association of Delaware County
- St. Adalbert Parish, Port Richmond Section
- St. Laurentius Parish of Fishtown
- Polish American Association of South Jersey
- The Polish Arts Club of Trenton, New Jersey
- Sacred Heart Parish, Swedesburg, PA
- Justice Outreach Representatives, Philadelphia Prison System

Each of these parishes and organizations make this annual parade possible in center city Philadelphia, in cooperation with the Polish American Congress Pulaski Day Parade Committee. Compliments to their representatives, pastors, and presidents for their outstanding participation in the 2006 Pulaski Day Parade.

Archbishop Ryan High School Marching Band.

Historic St. Stanislaus Church representatives, Rev. Vincent Welsh, Parochial Administrator.

Second Street Polish Society members.

Greater Overbrook String Band.

Polish Police Association of Philadelphia Division.

Polish Army Veterans, Post 12, with Commander Adam Teszner.

Barbara Ilnicka, Polish American Radio Program Hostess, Theresa Romanowski, Parade Coordinator, Richard Klimek, Grand Marshal, Governor Edward Rendell, Major John Nawoichyk, Military Marshal, and PA State Representative John Taylor.

Polish American Cultural Center & Museum banner carried by St. Laurentius school children.

Polish Police Association of Philadelphia float honors Lt. Col. Matt Urban, most decorated combat soldier, who received the Congressional Medal of Honor.