Celebrating Polish Christmas with Sw. Mikolaj (St. Nicholas)

On Saturday, December 10th, hundreds of visitors attended the annual Polish Christmas Open House at the Polish American Cultural Center Museum in historic Philadelphia. The Open House took place between 11 A.M. and 2 P.M. and featured snacks and refreshments, compliments of the Museum volunteers, a Holiday Magic Show, a visit by Sw. Mikolaj, and a concert of Koledy presented by the children from St. Adalbert's Polish Language School. During Sw. Mikolaj's visit, pictures of the children were taken with Sw. Mikolaj who presented every child with a traditional Polish treat of gingerbread cookies and a candy cane, just as he has done in Poland for hundreds of years.

The board, staff, and volunteers of the Museum thank all who attended this year's Polish Christmas Open House and invite you to visit the Museum Exhibit Hall at 308 Walnut Street the next time you're in historic Philadelphia. The Museum is presently on its winter schedule, open admission free, Monday to Friday from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. If you would like additional information call (215) 922-1700 during regular business hours.
