20th Anniversary of the Polish American Cultural Center Museum 308 Walnut Street in Historic Philadelphia, PA

On Saturday, August 9th, 2008, over two hundred people participated in the program and reception at the Polish American Cultural Center Museum, 308 Walnut Street in the Heart of Historic Philadelphia, to mark the exact date of its opening. It was on August 9, 1988 at 4:30 P.M., that members of the Polish American community along with elected officials and other well-wishers gathered to cut the opening ribbon at the Museum Exhibit Hall and reached another milestone in Polish American history. During the 20th Anniversary program, a pictorial presentation highlighted the opening day events. Michael Blichasz, President of the Cultural Center, complimented the Center's Board, Directors, Volunteers and Supporters for working together to help highlight Polish and Polish American culture and history in America's Most Historic Square Mile. He said, "Over the last 20 years the Museum Exhibit Hall has been a focal point for Polish Americans and tourists from around the world and we look forward to many more years of working together to highlight Polish and Polish American Heritage to the general public." Following the program, guests enjoyed a Polish buffet and refreshments.

Best Wishes to NASA Astronaut Captain Christopher Ferguson, USN

Captain Christopher Ferguson, the 2007 Philadelphia Pulaski Day Military Marshal and a proud Polish American, will command the Space Shuttle Atlantis (STS-126) targeted for launch in November, 2008.

Best wishes are extended to Captain Ferguson and the entire crew from the Polish American community and members of the Ferguson, Pietras, Cabot, Florkowski, Gawronski and Jachimowicz families.
