From the Desk of Janusz Romanski, Ph.D

As the president of the Polish People's University, Polski Uniwersytet Ludowy "PUL", I offer best wishes to Polonia as we celebrate Polish American Heritage Month during October.

In October PUL begins its monthly lecture series. The following is the schedule of our upcoming lectures for 2014: Polski Dom, Associated Polish Home, 9150 Academy Road, Philadelphia, PA., at 3 P.M.

Polish People's University lecture in 2014:

October 19, Third Sunday - Danuta Piatkowska - historian, writer "Droga bez powrotu - Emigracyjny szlak Tomasza Drzewniaka" "Way with No Return - Immigrant Life of Tomasz Drzewniak"

November 16, Third Sunday - Prof Charles Krasicki - writer, historian "Estetyka niszczenia w poezji polskiej okresu Solidarnosci." "Methods of trying to destroy Polish poetry during the time of Solidarity."

December 7, First Sunday - Anthony Krzywicki, Esquire "Wielkosz czlowieka nie jest mierzona jego bogactwem, ale kim jest w rzeczywistosci." "The Greatness of a Person is not Measured by his Wealth but by who He is".

Visit "The Kosciuszko Room"

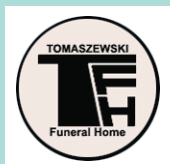

During October, "Polish American Heritage Month", or anytime throughout the year, visit the Kosciuszko Room in Ansonia, CT.

The Kosciuszko Room, established in 1980 by Joseph Wardzala, who devoted more than 50 years of his life studying the life and accomplishments of General Thaddeus Kosciuszko, and sponsored by the Kosciuszko Historical Society of Ansonia, Derby, Shelton and Seymour, is located on the second floor in the historic General David Humphreys House, 37 Elm Street, Ansonia, CT.

While in the United States, Kosciuszko befriended General Humphreys and spent much time in his home.

The Kosciuszko Room displays many artifacts honoring General Kosciuszko, including photographs, books, portraits, dolls dressed in traditional Polish dress, and a letter written by Humphreys to Kosciuszko in 1791. It is open, admission free, Monday through Friday, from 1 to 4 p.m., or by appointment by calling Joseph Wardzala at 203-732-5886.
