The Pulaski Day Parade Mass will take place in conjunction with the Second Street Polish Society annual Mass on Sunday, October 2, 2016 at 9:30 AM in St. Stanislaus Church, 3rd and Fitzwater Streets in South Philadelphia.

During the mass we will mark the 1050th anniversary of Christianity in Poland, honor St. Stanislaus the patron of Poland, mark the 40th Anniversary of Blessed Jerzy Popieluszko celebrating Mass at St. Stanislaus Church during the Eucharistic Congress in 1976, and the 83rd anniversary of the community-wide Pulaski Day Parade in Philadelphia. The Marcela Kochanska Sembrich Female Chorus will sing during the Mass. Following the Mass there will be refreshments in the church hall.

Father Jerry Popieluszko, now Blessed Jerzy Popieluszko, who celebrated Masses at St. Stanislaus Church in 1976, is also known for his efforts in support of Poland’s Solidarity movement.

The statue of St. Stanislaus, Bishop and Martyr and the patron of Poland, is one of the feature statues in St. Stanislaus church. The award winning Marcela Kochanska Sembrich Female Chorus under the direction of David Zagorski will sing during the 9:30 AM Mass.

Sunday, October 23, 2016
As Polonia marks the 1050th anniversary of Catholicism in Poland and the beginning of documented Polish history, there will be a special Mass at historic St. Joseph’s Polish Roman Catholic Church, 1010 Liberty Street in Camden, New Jersey on Sunday, October 23, 2016 at 10:00 AM. All members of the Polish American community, Polish American Heritage Associations and tri-State Polonia are invited to attend this Mass. Fr. Krzysztof Wtorek will celebrate the Mass. During this Mass we will also mark the 35th anniversary of ‘National Polish American Heritage Month’ and honor the memory of the first Polish settlers, who arrived in America during October, 1608.