

More than 20 million Americans share full or partial Polish heritage.

Polish Americans are part of every aspect of life in America. They are well known for their contributions to the Arts, Music, Education, Politics, Engineering, Communications, Medicine, Religion, Travel, Sports, Research and Development, and community events. They are inventors, builders and professions that make up the Great Mosaic of America.